BISHOPRIC MESSAGE

NOVEMBER 205

"Dear Brothers and Sisters, as we enter these Holiday seasons we seem to find ourselves much busier than the rest of the year. Where family get togethers are wonderful and fun, they help bond friendships and families. We get to know each other better and our awareness and concerns can be better directed to help and encourage others.

In the scriptures we are admonished to help others and be mindful of their needs. So we might lift and encourage where we can.

Several of Christ's goals in organizing the Church was to help people gain a testimony that He in fact is the living Son of God, and that we can be united with Him & Heavenly Father.

Ephesians 4:11-14

"And he gave some apostles and some prophets and some evangelists; and some pastors and some teachers. For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry for the edifying of the body of Christ.

Till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the slight of men, and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive."

At this season may we all be more united in the faith of Jesus Christ and be a little more understanding and patient and kind to others, and ourselves.

Love, the Bishopric

* Gordon B. Hinckley

"There is universal appeal in the gospel of Jesus Christ. We come from different parts of the world, we come out of a variety of cultures, but we are all sons and daughters of God, and when we listen, when we place ourselves in tune with His Holy Spirit, there is a response within our hearts that is similar, and we feel it. Each of us has felt it in our lives. And regardless of the source, we all respond in the same way. We "speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world." D&C 1:20

VOTING

Since almost everyone in the ward is in the county, not Sandy City, we will not be voting on November 8th. Even the referendum on the gravel pit is a Sandy City vote. However, we are eligible to vote for board members for the White City Water Improvement District. There are two positions open and three people running. Elections are held at the Water District office on Galena Dr. Polls will be open from 7am to 8pm.

REMINDER FOR TODAY

At 7pm tonight, Nov. 6th a special fireside recounting the life of Joseph Smith, at the Stake Center. Dr. Jeffrey Walker will share little know insights into the life of the Prophet Joseph Smith. Bring the family.

YOUNG WOMEN

- Nov 1 Baptism for the Dead
- Nov 8 Service Project
- Nov 15 Grandparent Dinner Combined with Young Men.
- Nov 23 No YW due to Thanksgiving Preparations
- Nov 30 Class Activities

In October, the Young Women had a great time helping to put together missionary care packages for the missionaries and serviceman in our ward. We also enjoyed going to the corn maze at Thanksgiving point. It was a great night to be outside and be apart of the autumn festivities. We also had a wonderful Young Women's in Excellence Night, where the girls shared the values that they have been working on, in the Personal Progress Program.

We are looking forward to a busy and fun November

“Out of Small Things—A Celebration of the Restoration” is an original musical production written and composed by Sister Carrie Wrigley. Performances are planned for April 7th & 8th 2006 with a special dress rehearsal on April 6th 2006. Rehearsals will begin in January 2006 and we hope to involve as many families, adults, youth, children, and even friends of other faiths as possible. We announce a GENERAL CALL for participants of all ages who would be interested in performing on stage, assisting with scene direction, singing in one or more of the choirs,
