FAMILY HOME EVENING

BISHOPRIC CHALLENGE: READ THE BOOK OF MORMON JUNE 1 TO JULY 31ST. NINE PAGES A DAY.

BISHOPRIC MESSAGE

And now I say unto you that the good shepherd doth call after you; and if you will hearken unto his voice he will bring you into his fold, and ye are his sheep; and he commandeth you that ye suffer no ravenous wolf to enter among you, that ye may not be destroyed. Alma 5:60

There is a battle raging in the minds of men, women and children alike with the church. It comes to a head every Monday night. The battle always proves to be victorious; it just depends from whose perspective. Family Home Evening has been talked, preached and expounded upon for as long as we can all remember. It can be a touchy subject among families. You would think that if we just got done with our Sunday meetings we wouldn't need to meet again on Monday night to have another lesson. Some may think it's just too hard to gather the family and keep their attention. Or, after a long day of work finding the energy to prepare and teach a lesson is difficult.

The bishopric doesn't have a pat answer to the above problems or the many others that can go along with this subject. What we can pass on to you is as the above scripture teaches; Christ is always calling after us. One of those ways is through a divinely appointed program called "Family Home Evening". If we hearken to the counsel given, and hold this important event in our homes our children will be prepared to hear and hearken to the voice of Christ, and by doing so we receive the blessing of protection from the adversary within our families. Sounds like a pretty good deal, one worth pursuing.

This is one of many tools that the Lord has given us to combat the evil effects of the world. Let's put it to good use. After the closing prayer of your Family Home Evening this Monday night give each other high fives because you won the battle for the night over the adversary. Just remember this is not a best of seven series. We need a sweep every month. Good luck and God bless.

With love, the Bishopric

MUSIC

How blessed are we as members of the church to be able to have an evening at home with our families. Fond memories are created and later recalled, as we think about our times together. What songs do your family sing on these special evenings?—Love at Home?—Let Us All Speak Kind Words? What about Love one Another or When the Family gets together when the evening work is done?

Little children can learn to lead music at home. Usually they all love to do it. It truly sets the tone.

PRIMARY

This month in Primary we will be learning about temples. This is an exciting time in the Church for temple building. We have many new temples being built and are excited to watch the progress on the Draper Temple which we be our new temple. President Monson announced that another new temple will be built in Phoenix AZ as recently as last week. The theme is The temple is a blessing for me and my family. The scripture for June is taken from D&C 124:40 and says "And verily I say unto you, let this house be built unto my name, that I may reveal mine ordinances therein unto my people." We will also be reviewing a song about the temple which is familiar and all the children love—"I love to see the Temple," (CS, 95)

A "Schools Out" Primary Activity Day will be held Wednesday June 4th from 5-6pm. All families with Primary-aged children are invited to attend. That means everyone—Mom, Dad, brothers and sisters. The children will meet at 5 pm in Eastpoint Circle with their Scooters, bikes, wagons, etc. Materials to decorate them will be furnished and then they will parade to the Nydegger's home for hot dogs and home made root beer. This is kind of a tradition and is always a fun time for everyone.

Because of their faithful reading of the scriptures and bringing them to Primary each Sunday the Primary will be sending a Book of Mormon to one of the missionaries from our ward. Sister Nydegger showed the children Books of Mormon written French, Spanish and English that are going to be sent to our missionaries. Last Sunday the children all went outside for a group picture that will be included in the Book with their testimonies. Remember keep bringing your scriptures to Primary with you.

Thanks for Kaitlan Jensen, Ben Neiswender and Jamie Rigby for presenting sharing time with their classes last week. Class presentations are always special.

The Book of Mormon Reading Challenge begins June 1 and goes through July 31st. To be spiritually uplifted, accept this challenge. See the back page of the newsletter for a corrected time schedule.

Walk to Nauvoo with us this summer! Get out and get active and then keep track of your miles for the walking competition.

We are still collecting fabric and yarn for making crib quilts as well as recipes for a new ward cookbook.

The Fun Run is June 14th @ 7:00am.

Happy Fathers day to all of our wonderful Fathers and potential Fathers June 15th.

Ephesians 6:4

And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord

"The father is the provider, the defender, the counselor, the friend who will listen and give support when needed. Who better than an exemplary father to effectively teach children the value of education, the dead-end nature of street gangs, and the miracle of self-esteem that can change their lives for good?" Gordon B. Hinckley

HAPPY FATHERS DAY

YOUNG WOMEN

Yea, school is out! All the Young Women are so excited for summer. We want to congratulate Amanda Messerly and Megan Pasker for their recent accomplishments. Amanda took first place in her dance competition and was also successful in making Dance Company for next year. Megan was successful in making the drill team for next year and was also selected to be an officer for the team. Way to go Amanda and Megan. We are so happy for both of you.

We want to remind everyone to participate in Youth Conference which is planned for June 19th through the 21st. All young Women and Young Men 14 and older are invited.

Our Girl's Camp is also planned for this month. We will leave on June 30th and return the morning of July 4th. Our leaders have put in a lot of time and preparation into making camp a fun, memorable and spiritual experience.

We want to remind all of the Young Women to participate in the Book of Mormon challenge. Our wonderful Bishop Lloyd challenged each of us to read the Book of Mormon in two months starting on June 1st and finishing by July 31st. All you have to do is read nine pages a day and you will finish in the time allotted.

Happy Birthday this month to Kim Leshner and Vicki Davis; they will both be 39 years old this month????

Out thought for this month is OVER LOOK YOUR FLAWS AND CELEBRATE YOUR STRENGTHS.

We love you,

The Young Women Presidency

Reminder: It is that time of year when we need to be very concerned about observing the speed limit of 25 mph in our neighborhoods with children out playing. We sure don't want anything bad to happen to any of them. Especially remind the teen age members of your families. They seem to always be in a hurry and go like lightening sometimes. LETS HAVE A WONDERFUL SUMMER!
