JULY 2010 SERVICE

The Challenge for July is to read nine (9) pages a day. In the Book of Mormon

Bishopric Message

I hope this story can be used to help motivate your family members to serve a mission. This story had a huge impact on me when I read it. I hope you can share it with your families. Our theme this month is Service. This story is from a talk given by President Monson in General Conference 1987:

My mind goes back in memory to a general priesthood meeting held in 1956. At that time I was serving in the stake presidency of the Temple View Stake here in Salt Lake City. Percy K. Fetzer, John R. Burt, and I, the stake presidency, had come to the Tabernacle early, that hopefully we might find a place to sit. We were among the first to enter the Tabernacle and had almost two hours to wait before the meeting would begin.

President Fetzer related to President Burt and me an experience from his missionary days in Germany. He described how one rainy night he and his companion were to present a gospel message to a group assembled in a schoolhouse. A protester had broadcast falsehoods concerning the Church, and a number of people threatened violence against the two missionaries. At a critical moment, a woman who was a widow stepped between the elders and the angry group and said, "These young men are my guests and are coming to my home now. Please make way for us to leave."

The crowd parted, and the missionaries walked through the rainy night with their benefactress, arriving at length at her modest home. She placed their wet coats over the kitchen chairs and invited the missionaries to sit at the table while she prepared food for them. After eating, the elders presented a message to the kind lady who had befriended them. A young son of the woman was invited to come to the table, but he refused, preferring his position of solitude and warmth directly behind the kitchen stove.

President Fetzer concluded the account with the comment, "While I don't know if that woman ever joined the Church, I'll forever be grateful to her for her kindness that rain-drenched night thirty-three years ago."

The brethren sitting in front of us here in the Tabernacle had been speaking to one another also. After a while, we began listening to their conversation. One asked the friend sitting next to him, "Tell me how you came to be a member of the Church."

The brother responded, "One rainy night in Germany, my mother brought to our house two drenched missionaries whom she had rescued from a mob. Mother fed the elders, and they presented to her a message concerning the work of the Lord. They invited me to join the discussion, but I was shy and fearful, so I remained secure in my seat behind the stove. Later, when I once more heard about the Church, I remembered the courage and faith, as well as the message, of those two humble missionaries, and this led to my conversion. I suppose I'll never meet those two missionaries here in mortality, but I'll be forever grateful to them. I know not where they were from. I think one was named Fetzer."

At this point, President Burt and I looked at President Fetzer and noticed the great tears which coursed down his cheeks. Without saying a word to us, President Fetzer tapped on the shoulder of the man in front of us who had just related his conversion experience. To him he then said, "I'm Bruder Fetzer. I was one of the two missionaries whom you befriended that night. I'm grateful to meet the boy who sat behind the stove—the lad who listened and who learned."

I do not remember the messages delivered during the priesthood meeting that night, but I shall never forget the faith-filled conversation which preceded the commencement of the meeting.

The words of the Lord seemed so appropriate then. They are equally appropriate now: "And if it so be that you should labor all your days in crying repentance unto this people, and bring, save it be one soul unto me, how great shall be your joy with him in the kingdom of my Father!" (D&C 18:15).

We are grateful for all your service. All our love and prayers,

Bishopric.

MUSIC

July is the month for singing patriotic songs and also songs about the pioneers. How grateful we are for the freedoms and legacy left by those who have gone before us. We truly enjoy the fruits of their tremendous sacrifice.

Again this July we will sing the third and fourth verses of the hymn #37, The Wintry Day. In these two verses the words tell about this beautiful place that the pioneers founded for us, the place we now call home.

Our Annual Ward Reunion Summer party will be held at Hidden Valley Park on Wednesday August 4th at 6:00p.m. Same place as last year. Invite and remind your Family members of this date and any former ward members too. The ward will furnish meat and buns and each family is asked to bring a side dish salad or a dessert. This is a fun time to meet old friends and families and to renew acquaintances. SEE FLIER FOR DETAILS

RELIEF SOCIETY

June is over and we have had some very good times. We want to thank those that attended our Girls Night Out even if we did not make it to Temple Square. We would also like to thank those that have attended our hikes. It has been fun getting out and seeing some new areas. The company has been awesome also. If you haven't been on one yet, there is still plenty of time. Meet at Nydeggers on Wednesday mornings at 8:30 A.M. or Thursday evenings at 7:30 P.M. You are always welcome to come on both days if you would like. Be sure to invite your friends and neighbors.

July is a time to celebrate the birth of our nation and our pioneer heritage. It is also a good time to remember why the Relief Society was created. It was organized for the women to help each other and give comfort and aid to those in need. Look around the neighborhood. Is there someone you know that needs a little encouragement or a reminder of how awesome they are? Is there something you can do for someone else to help them in any way? Lets see what we can do this month to help lift someone else up and remind them that that are wonderful daughter of God. We each have something to give to help one another. Lets make this a wonderful month and find the joys in serving each other.
