July 2016 – The Atonement

If the Atonement is the fullness of the gospel then 2 Nephi 2 teaches fullness of the gospel. This blessing from Lehi to his son Jacob has the teachings of Christ's atonement which have been the foundation of our gospel since the Prophet Joseph translated the plates.

Gerald Lund makes the following point:

“Very simply put, Lehi states that men are condemned by the law but redeemed by the Messiah. Lehi’s qualifying statement about the Messiah is interesting in and of itself; he adds “for he is full of grace and truth.” In the LDS Bible Dictionary we find the following definition for “grace”:

“The main idea of the word is divine means of help or strength, given through the bounteous mercy and love of Jesus Christ. . . . This grace is an enabling power that allows men and women to lay hold on eternal life and exaltation after they have expended their own best efforts.” (p. 697)

“Lehi’s point is that if Christ were not full of this grace or “enabling power,” he could not possibly redeem man.

“Lehi’s next statement is that the Holy Messiah offers himself as “a sacrifice for sin, to answer the ends of the law” (2 Nephi 2:7). Going back to the law of justice, one could say that there are only two ways to satisfy the demands of that law. The first is to keep the law perfectly, the second would be to pay the penalty for any violations of it. Christ kept the law perfectly. Not once in his entire mortal life did Jesus violate the law in any way. But Christ did more than this. Adding to what his father taught, Jacob declares in 2 Nephi 9:21: “Behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men, women, and children, who belong to the family of Adam.” Thus Christ satisfied the law of justice in both dimensions.

"Lehi also indicates in verse 7 that the sacrifice answered the ends of the law only for those who have "a broken heart and a contrite spirit." Then he added, "unto none else" will that be done."

It's interesting to think of the difference between a hard heart and a broken heart, or a hard heart and a soft heart. The Atonement is so much more than just repentance. It's the reason we are resurrected and the reason we will stand before God. It is also the power that will magnify and purify us and enable us to do more with our lives than we can do ourselves (Strength of Youth pamphlet). The Atonement will exalt us.

Have a great July!

Relief Society

Welcome Summer! It is so wonderful to see our neighbors and friends out enjoying the warm weather. It is always fun to see the kids out playing and riding their bikes and scooters, laughing and chasing around. We need to be more aware and cautious as we drive through our neighborhoods and help protect our children.

Please save July 28th for our "Get to Know You" social. Please note the date change, as we want to help the Walkenhorsts' celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary. Congratulations to Al and Joyce!! Watch for more details and location for an evening of food and laughter.

We also want to welcome Kathie Hancock to our Enrichment Committee. We appreciate all of the efforts of these special sisters and their dedication. Thank you.

We also want to thank all of our dedicated teachers who provide wonderful, insightful, and spiritual lessons each Sunday.

Congratulations to CJ and Jackie Johnson Cottrell on the birth of their sweet Emmy Jane born on June 6th. Thank you for sharing this special time with us!

Natalie Nielsen-Riep is wanting to help Gang Liu and his wife continue to learn English. If there is anyone who would be interested in helping with this need, please contact Natalie and she will help train you and answer any questions you might have. Her number is 801-440-2799.

Thank you to Kelly Ellis Hanson for starting the ball rolling by taking so many photos for the RS names and faces project for our new Ward Family. Thanks to Dorothy Mahler for taking this huge project over and spending countless hours to make sure we had as many pictures as possible and the names correct. This project has been printed now, and for those who have paid for a hard copy they will be distributed as quickly as possible. The email version has been sent to those requesting it in that format. A huge effort by many and a huge "thank you" to all.

As always thank you for your caring and love to the sisters of our ward family. Visiting teaching is divinely inspired as we care for one another and those around us. With the busy summer might we suggest getting out and visiting early in the months as this is such a busy family time. Be safe and enjoy!

Love, Kim, Kathi, Shelly, and Charlene
