June 2021 – The Blessings of the Temple

“I love to see the temple, I’m going there someday” are the opening lines of a beloved Primary song. We can all relate to the sentiment expressed in those lines, especially after the past fifteen months of significant limitations on our temple attendance and service. Do we still ponder often on the sacred ordinances we have received, and the powerful covenants we have made there? Do those covenants and ordinances continue to guide our daily decisions and actions? The answers to those questions continue to be critical to our spiritual and emotional well being.

In our day, the adversary has unleashed all of his malignant powers to weaken our families. He works through evil and designing men and women to corrupt anything that is good and decent. What is the answer to this latter-day plague? Paul gave this challenge to the saints in Rome when he said “Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.” (Romans 12:21). When we are seeking to overcome evil with good, perhaps our greatest ally is the power that flows into our families from the making and keeping of sacred temple covenants. Elder Gary L. Stevenson said it in this simple way “There exists a righteous unity between the temple and the home. Understanding the eternal nature of the temple will draw you to your family; understanding the eternal nature of the family will draw you to the temple”.

Our temples are currently opened in a limited way, but will very soon be opened fully. Let us be ready to enter when that wonderful announcement is made. As a bishopric, we stand ready to help each of you prepare once again to fully participate in the blessings of the temple. God bless each one of you and your families.

Relief Society

In our Stake Conference we were encouraged to prepare to return to the temple. Our stake goal is to cultivate conversion. President Weight said when we give service by doing family history work, or we are attending the temple, we will receive extra inspiration from God.

After meeting with the Bishop for your recommend, here's the number for the Stake Clerk's Office 801-576-2991 so you can call for an appointment with the Stake Presidency.

With Love,
Susan, Chyrrel,
Keesha and Marilynn

Activity Suggestion:

Here's a phrase to help us bravely share the gospel.
Repeat it whenever you need courage!

The Lord has told us to be missionaries, but it's not always easy. Sharing our deep, personal beliefs can be downright nerve-racking. If you find yourself anxious about sharing the gospel, remember these four words from President M. Russell Ballard: "Remember who you are."

- You are a child of God, and others are too. They'd probably appreciate knowing that they have heavenly parents!
- You are a follower of Jesus Christ who promised to do what He would do.
- You are infinitely powerful with God's help.

These empowering truths can help you be kind and confident as you try to share the gospel.

June Birthdays:

To be baptized as Jesus was
By one who holds the priesthood true
And thus obey God's holy laws
Is just the thing I want to do. (Children's Songbook #104)
