
Don Warren Clawson

Don Warren Clawson 2/24/1934 ~ 1/13/2006 Don Warren Clawson passed away peacefully January 13, 2006 surrounded by family. He was born to Arnold and Thora Clawson in Salt Lake City, Utah, February 24, 1934. Don spent his early years in SLC and then moved to Pocatello, ID where he met his eternal sweetheart, Carol Lee Curtis. They were married August 25, 1954. Their marriage was solemnized in the Idaho Falls Temple. He is survived by his "most precious possession," Carol. "Carol, all I ever wanted to do was to take care of you." He is also survived by their four boys, Curt (Kaylene), Reed (Ranae), Ron (Marci), and Chris (Lori); in addition to 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, special in-laws, and brothers. Don worked for 23 years as a sales rep. for Stanley Tools, living all over the United States. He retired in 1995 so he could spend more time with Carol and serve a mission with her. Every church calling he filled with diligence and enthusiasm. He enjoyed camping (especially family reunions), reading, serving others, and spending time with family and friends. Heartfelt thanks from the family to Adriana and Life-Path Hospice. Funeral services will be at the Midvale East 5th Ward, 240 East 7570 South, Wednesday January 18, at 12:00 noon. Friends and family may call Tuesday, January 17, 6-8 p.m. at Memorial Mortuary, 5850 South 900 East, Murray and again one hour prior to services at the church. Interment will be at the Salt Lake City Cemetery, 200 North "N" Street.
